SFL Player Profiles

Brad Carver	Inspirational ruckman who can hurt opposition sides when resting forward.
Brad Curran (Capt.)	Tall strong backline player who is hard at the ball and has great disposal.
Brent Hill	A sweeping backman who has outstanding skills and is a great decision maker.
Brett Booth	Another classy half forward who can do the freakish things at times.
Clinton Curtain	Strong marking forward and a long accurate kick for goal.
Dale Evans	Gutsy little rover with a strong work ethic – can run all day.
David Scott	Super consistent players who can play at either end.
Gavin Quirk	Hard running player who reads the game well and gathers a lot of the ball.
Jack Siggins	Tall slightly built ruckman. Quick on his feet, runs all day and can take a good mark.
Jamie Curran	Strongly built ruckman. Good overall skills and can play at either end of the ground.
Jason Britten	Running half back/rover who backs himself in and brings others into the game.
Jon Murray	One of the strongest on the ball players in the competition. Is rarely beaten.
Josh Hall	Can play either as a forward or second ruckman. Very polished performer.
Kurt Baker	A very talented small forward who can push into the midfield.
Darren Garth	A true utility player. Excellent below knees and a wonder mark. B&F in Premiership.
Luke Browning	Capable backman who kicks the footy long to position.
Luke Joseph	Hard working backman. One of the most polished below the knees players in the SFL
Michael Thompson	Classy CHF. Will take a good player to keep him in check. Can take big marks.
Nathan Barwick	Classy centreman who can deliver the ball well Uses both sides of the body.
Nathan Ross	Will of the wisp on the forward line. Capable of bagging 2 or 3 goals each week.
Nic Clayton	Speedy winger/half back who takes his opponents on and delivers the footy well.
Nick Braslin	A great leader who is tough at the footy, enjoying a super year at club level.
Robert Harwood	A versatile young player. Can play key position or ruck and is a very good kick.
Rohan Heron	Usual position is full back but can play up the ground if given the chance.
Sam Hall	Plays mostly in the back half. Capable of holding down
Tim Bracken	Extremely talented player. Very athletic and can play anywhere.
